

DeCiantis presents mapping
As featured in The Day, April 13, 2003

Stonington- John DeCiantis of DeCiantis Construction recently presented a talk on Process Mapping with Judith Miller at the JLC Live Construction Conference in Providence. Process Mapping provides a “check list” with the aid of flow charts to keep order in business systems and to assure clear and concise communication between the various team members.

DeCiantis owns and operates DeCiantis Construction in Stonington.
