

Remodeling contractor honored
As featured in The Day, June 30, 2002

John Deciantis, owner of DeCiantis Construciton has been presented with the 2002 Remodeler of the Year Award by the Home Builders Association of Connecticut in recognition of his 30-year reputation of providing quality workmanship, innovative thinking and high standards of service.

The award was presented June 12 at the Aqua Turf in Southington.

In 1998 he received three State Home Builders Industry Design Awards. In 1999, he again received a HOBI Design Award for the Builders Association of Eastern Connecticut. He was recognized as the Builder Association of Eastern Connecticut Remodeler of the Year in 1998, 1999, and 2001.

DeCiantis serves as the president of BAEC and on the board of directors and ethics committee of HBACT. He has earned his "Certified Graduate Remodeler" certification through the Home Building Institute, which is the educational arm of the National Association of Home Builders.

Deciantis Construction, LLC is a full-service remodeling contractor specializing in historic restoration, remodeling and additions. To receive more information or a company newsletter call 860-535-3663.

Restoration~Design/Build

PO Box 229, Stonington, CT 06378 | p. 860.535.3663 | f. 860.535.4847 | www.deciantis.com